

RHODE ISLAND SEA GRANT

BY THE NUMBERS

403
JOBS CREATED OR SUSTAINED

240
FISHERS ADOPTED SUSTAINABLE HARVESTING TECHNIQUES

54
UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS SUPPORTED

29
GRADUATE STUDENTS AND FELLOWS SUPPORTED

60
BUSINESSES CREATED OR SUSTAINED

129
PROFESSIONALS TRAINED IN HAZARD
ANALYSIS & CRITICAL CONTROL POINTS
(HACCP) FOR SEAFOOD PROCESSING

536
VOLUNTEER HOURS PROVIDED TO RHODE ISLAND SEA GRANT

1
PATENT (FOR A PROBIOTIC FOR OYSTERS)

$2,079,007
federal funds

$1,039,505
non-federal match

$990,366
leveraged funds

19
trainings to improve resilience

7
ecosystem-based management (EBM) tools, technologies, and information services developed

49
resource managers
used EBM tools

7
communities
implemented sustainable development practices/
policies

20
law fellow projects
helped organizations
and communities
answer legal questions